Recognition:

Fellows, Members and Licentiates are designated by the abbreviation F.I.G.M., M.I.G.M. and L.I.G.M. respectively. Graduate Members are not assigned any abbreviation. The abbreviation denotes the bearer as a geologist who observes and is bound by the Code of Ethics as laid down by IGM. The Council has the right to expel or suspend any member who is guilty or contravenes the IGM Code of Ethics or any laws introduced to govern the conduct of a geologist following procedures specified in the IGM Constitution.

ABOUT INSTITUTE OF GEOLOGY MALAYSIA (IGM)

Institute of Geology Malaysia, also known as IGM, was officially registered with the Malaysian Registrar of Societies in 1989. Its establishment was in response to the need of a single body to regulate the profession of geology in Malaysia. The Seal of IGM portrays a hammer flanked by silhouette maps of Peninsular Malaysia and East Malaysia. The Seal depicts the basic tool of the geologists and thus symbolizes the roles of geologists in Malaysia. The objectives of IGM are as follows:

- To provide a central organization for geologists in the form of a learned and scientific institute for geology and to provide for the definition of, and qualification for, the various branches of the profession of the geological sciences.
- To promote friendly interaction amongst geologists and to hold meetings for readings and discussion of matters relating to geology and their various arts and sciences connected therewith.
- To regulate and uphold the dignity, standing and reputation of the profession of geology.
- To promote and advance the knowledge, study and practice of geology and the various arts and sciences connected therewith.
- To assist, advise and cooperate with government departments and other private or public bodies in an honorary capacity on questions relating to the science of geology and policy in respect of land and earth resource utilisation and all other matters connected therewith.

1. There are five classes of membership in IGM, namely Fellow, Member, Licenciate, Associate and Graduate Member.
Fellows, Members and Licenciates are Corporate Members of the Institute.
2. All applications for membership must be proposed by two Corporate Members, one of whom must certify his/her personnel knowledge of the applicant.
